(CIA SURVEILLANCE)

WASHINGTON (UPI) -- PRESIDENT CARTER HAS SIGNED A BILL TO PAY THE CITY OF FAIRFAX, VA., $41,958 FOR LEGAL COSTS INCURRED BECAUSE OF A CIA SURREPTITIOUS ENTRY.

THE WHITE HOUSE SAID THAT IN 1971, THE CIA CONTACTED FAIRFAX CITY POLICE ABOUT PUTTING A PRIVATE BUILDING UNDER SURVEILLANCE BECAUSE OF SUSPECTED ESPIONAGE, AND LATER, WITH CITY KNOWLEDGE, THE CIA ENTERED THE BUILDING AND SEARCHED IT.

NOTHING WAS FOUND TO INDICATE ANY ESPIONAGE, THE WHITE HOUSE SAID. THE BREAK-IN WAS REVEALED IN THE 1975 ROCKEFELLER COMMISSION REPORT.

THE COSTS WERE INCURRED WHEN THE BUSINESSMAN SUED THE CITY AND THE CITY HAD TO HIRE PRIVATE COUNSEL.
